TERMS

1. Independent contractor. The Salesperson is an independent contractor, not an employee. The Salesperson controls their own schedule and methods, is responsible for their own taxes, and is not entitled to employee benefits.
2. Licensing and conduct. The Salesperson will keep an active license, work under the Brokerage as required by law, and comply with applicable law, any applicable REALTOR® code of ethics, and the Brokerage's written policies.
3. Commissions. Commissions are payable to the Brokerage and divided per the split above after any stated fees, payable promptly after the Brokerage receives them. No commission is owed on transactions the Brokerage does not collect on.
4. Expenses. The Salesperson bears their own business expenses (dues, MLS, transportation, marketing) unless agreed in writing.
5. Termination. Either party may terminate at any time by written notice. Pending transactions are handled per Brokerage policy stated in writing, or split as above if none.
6. Confidentiality. Brokerage records, client information, and transaction files remain the Brokerage's property and must be kept confidential and returned on termination.
