TERMS

1. The referral fee is earned only upon a closed transaction between the referred client and the Receiving Brokerage, and is payable from the Receiving Brokerage's gross commission as stated above.
2. Each party represents that it holds an active real estate license in its jurisdiction and that the fee may lawfully be paid broker-to-broker. Nothing here creates an employment, agency, or partnership relationship between the brokerages.
3. This agreement covers the referred client for transactions commenced within 12 months of the date below, unless otherwise stated.
