TERMS

1. Exclusive right to sell. The commission stated above is earned if, during the listing term, the Property is sold or exchanged by the Brokerage, the Seller, or anyone else, or if a ready, willing and able buyer is procured at the list price or any price the Seller accepts.
2. Cooperation and MLS. The Brokerage may place the Property in the multiple listing service(s) it participates in, cooperate with and compensate other licensed brokers as stated above, and share listing information as customary.
3. Marketing. The Seller authorizes the Brokerage to advertise the Property, place signage where permitted, photograph the Property, and use those materials in marketing.
4. Fair housing. The Property is offered in full compliance with federal, state, and local fair housing laws, without regard to any protected class.
5. Protection period. If, within 90 days after this listing ends, the Seller contracts to sell to a buyer introduced during the term, the commission above remains payable, unless the Property is then relisted with another broker.
